2) TAXI from the airport

Taxis in Pristina are among the cheapest in Europe and some taxi companies in the city operate 24 hours a day.

If you do not find a taxi in front of the airport, you can ask the staff at the info desk to call one for you. Taxis also stop along the wide street near the airport, so you catch a cab at almost any moment as they pass by.

Taxi fares are paid in cash and credit card. A ride from the airport to Pristina should cost between 15KM (15 EUR) and 25KM (20 EUR). The taxi meter starts at 2.00KM and every kilometer after that costs from 0.50 to 1.00KM.

You can ask the driver for a receipt and it is possible to agree upon the fare ahead of time, in which case the cost for a ride should not be higher than what it would be when going by the taximeter.

All legal taxi vehicles must have a roof sign that reads “TAXI”.
